Reception Info....

Our Glampsites are an excellent option for receptions with 25 people or less.

The Glampsites are a super fun and unique way to build your wedding weekend experience! We have a total of three adjacent Glampsites. A pavilion appropriate for a small reception is nestled in the center of these sites. From a fun bridal party weekend to a cozy and romantic wedding night, and anything in between, these sites are a great enhancement.

Each Glampsite has one queen size bed, but additional bedding can be added to accommodate a maximum of 4 people overnight in each tent.

Including Glampsites in your wedding.

Using the Glampsites as a reception site is the perfect complement to a Hammond Dock Ceremony!

Glampsite Specifics:

1. A maximum of four (4) people may stay overnight in each Glampsite.
2. The largest reception size at the Glampsite pavilion is 25 people.
3. To hold a reception at the Glampsites, you must reserve all three Glampsites.
4. All unregistered guests (those not staying overnight, must exit the park by sundown unless prior arrangements have been made through a Booking Agreement.
5. Glampsite Check-In is 3:00pm and Check-Out is 11:00am. This is important when considering any set-up or breakdown you need to plan for.

Quick Reservation Tips:

The Glampsites may be reserved well in advance. We will be happy to help you check dates and reserve them in tandem with your Wedding Booking Agreement. Glampsite rates range of $125-$250 per tent per night based on season. There is no additional fee for use of the pavilion.

Reception Info....

Options for receptions include either renting an event tent OR utilizing the cabins.

If you opt to rent an event tent, you will choose your own vendor and an Outsider Vendor equipment fee will apply. We will review and approve in advance your chosen location.

The cabins at Lake Louisa a great space to hold a reception. They very difficult to reserve due to their popularity and park booking regulations. Below is helpful information on reserving cabins. We can help you plan your ceremony or reception at the cabin area after you have secured a reservation.

Including cabins in your wedding.

1. The cabins at Lake Louisa are difficult to reserve because of their popularity and short reservation window. The info below is intended to help event planners decide whether cabins are right for their event, as well as offer guidance on what is involved in reserving them.
2. Cabins must, and may only, be reserved at this website: <https://reserve.floridastateparks.org/> or by calling 800-326-3521.
3. State cabin booking guide: <https://www.floridastateparks.org/reservation-information>

Lake Louisa Cabin Specifics:

1. Only six (6) people may stay overnight in each cabin at Lake Louisa.
2. If a cabin is used to host a reception, or gathering of any kind, one (1) cabin per every ten (10) people must be reserved. This does not increase the number of people who are allowed to stay overnight.
3. All unregistered guests (those not staying overnight, must exit the park by sundown unless prior arrangements have been made through a Booking Agreement.
4. Cabin Check-In is 3:00pm and Check-Out is 11:00am. This is important when considering any set-up or breakdown you need to plan for.
5. Minimum length of stay is 2 nights.

Quick Reservation Tips:

1. Florida Residents may reserve cabins a maximum of 11 months in advance of their CHECK IN date. The booking date opens on 8:00am 11 months to the day in advance.
2. Non-Florida Residents may reserve cabins a maximum of 10 month in advance of their CHECK IN date. The booking date opens on 8:00am 10 months to the day in advance.
3. Because the maximum length of stay in a cabin is 14 days & the reservation opening is based on CHECK IN date, cabins may not be available for reservation at exactly 10 or 11 months ahead. Dates may technically be reserved 10 or 11 months (respectively) & 13 days in advance.
4. Making a change to a reservation (for example, by canceling several days of a reservation to reduce a stay from 14 days down to 3 days) will incur a $10 fee. Refunds are issued for unused nights if canceled more than 24 hours in advance of check-in.
5. Only one cabin per 'account' may be reserved. For multiple cabins, you will need access to mutliple accounts.... recruit your family or wedding party to help book!

This info is subject to change based on state park regulations. Please confirm the accuracy of these details before reserving your cabins.
